Ministerial Order no. 105/2015, of 27 November was approved recently and it establishes the rules for the registration of self-employed workers in the Social Security System, managed by the National Institute of Social Security. It also indicates the documents that must be filed by self-employed workers.

As a result, for the purposes of registration, self-employed workers must file all of the following documents:

- Identity card, birth certificate or personal identification document;
- Licence to carry out the activity or document issued by the authorised entity equivalent to a licence (for example, business licence or simplified licence);
- Sole tax identification number (NUIT).

It should be noted that the Social Security rate applicable to self-employed workers is 7%, under the terms established under the provisions of Decree no. 14/2015, of 16 July.
