Sabina Sacco

Partner, Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler

Sabina Sacco is a partner at Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler in Geneva, Switzerland, where she specializes in international commercial and investment arbitration. She has acted as counsel, arbitrator, secretary or assistant to the arbitral tribunal in numerous international arbitration proceedings under various rules, including the ICC, ICSID, UNCITRAL, LCIA and AAA rules. Her experience spans a variety of industries, including oil and gas, energy, mining and natural resources, construction, utilities, food and retail, and international sales.

Prior to joining Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler in 2009, Sabina practiced for several years at leading law firms in the United States and Chile, where she specialized in international dispute resolution and corporate matters related to foreign investment.

Sabina is currently a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR, and of the IBA Arbitration Committee (member of the Steering Group for the Guidelines and Rules Subcommittee). From 2012 to 2015, Sabina was a member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration, representing Chile.

Sabina holds a law degree from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School. She is admitted to the Chile and New York bars.

Christof Strasser

Founder, 42law

Christof Strasser is the founder and principal of 42law, a Vienna-based team of four attorneys specialized in international arbitration, corporate transactions and banking law. Christof has acted as arbitrator or counsel in institutional and ad hoc-proceedings in Europe and the US, with a focus on distribution and sales agreements, construction matters and post-M&A disputes. He has published and lectured extensively on arbitration and company law, and is a member of the adjunct faculty of the Vienna University School of Law.

Christof has been practicing law since 2006 and is admitted to the bars of New York, England & Wales, and Austria. Before founding 42law, he worked as an associate in the New York and London offices of Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP. Christof graduated from the Vienna University School of Law with a magister iuris in 2002, and doctor iuris in 2004. He received an LL.M. degree from Harvard Law School in 2006.

Stamatios Tsetos

Founding Partner, Tsetos & Leboulanger Law Firm; Partner Leboulanger & Associés

Stamatios Tsetos is a partner at both the Paris-based Leboulanger & Associés boutique law firm and the Athens-based Tsetos & Leboulanger Law Firm, where he specialises in international (commercial and investment) arbitration, litigation as well as in commercial contractual disputes regarding various sectors and acts as Counsel or arbitrator. He also independently advises Greek clients in international arbitration, domestic corporate litigation matters and entertainment law.

Stamatios is a Member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and was a Regional Coordinating Committee Member of the European Chapter of the ICC Young Arbitrators Forum. He is currently Chairman of the Arbitration Commission of ICC Greece and a member of all the major associations of young international arbitration practitioners.

Prior to joining Leboulanger & Associés as a partner in 2012, Stamatios has worked for several French and Greek international arbitration and litigation-specialised renowned law firms. He then founded his own niche practice (formerly Stamatios Tsetos & Associates and currently Tsetos & Leboulanger Law Firm) in Athens advising various domestic and international clients in the field of international arbitration, litigation, private international law and international business law.

Stamatios read law at the University of Athens where he graduated with honours and pursued postgraduate studies in Paris as a full scholar, where he obtained a Master's Degree in International and EU Business Law from Université Paris X – Nanterre (2002) and a Master's Degree in Litigation, Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution from Université Paris II – Panthéon-Assas (2003).

Mr Tsetos is a dually qualified lawyer both in France (2004) and in Greece (2002) and a qualified solicitor in England and Wales (2013).

He speaks fluent Greek, English and French and has basic knowledge of Spanish.

Alexander Tsirigos

Partner, KLC Law Firm

Alexandros joined KLC Law Firm and has been a partner in the commercial law / M&A and arbitration practice in Athens since 2014, specializing in the energy, construction and privatization sectors. He advises major clients in complex cross-border transactions and arbitration cases.

Ben Valentin QC

Barrister, Fountain Court Chambers

Ben Valentin Q.C. is an English barrister practicing in commercial litigation and arbitration from Fountain Court Chambers, the leading commercial set in London.

He was called to the English Bar in 1995, and was appointed Queen's Counsel in February 2016. He is also admitted to practice in New York (1998) and the British Virgin Islands (2007). Ben was educated at Oxford (BA, BCL) and Cornell (LLM).

His practice covers all aspects of commercial dispute resolution, with a strong emphasis on cases concerning banking and finance, corporate transactions, professional negligence, international trade, and civil fraud and insolvency. He is consistently ranked among the foremost practitioners at the English Commercial

Bar.

Ben was instructed as lead Counsel in many of his cases before his appointment as Queen's Counsel and has extensive experience as both a trial and appellate advocate. He regularly appears before the higher English courts, and is an acknowledged specialist in arbitration, both domestic and international. In common with many at Fountain Court, much of Ben's practice is international in nature. In addition to his English practice, he also has significant experience as an advocate in complex offshore litigation (notably in the British Virgin Islands and the Cayman Islands).

Melanie van Leeuwen

Partner, Derains & Gharavi International

Melanie van Leeuwen joined Derains & Gharavi as a partner in 2011. Who's Who Legal 2015 lists Melanie for her 'expert handling' of commercial and investment arbitrations, while Legal 500 EMEA 2013 describes her as a 'very committed, hardworking and knowledgeable' lawyer who 'knows her files inside out and has a good eye for detail'. She has solid experience as counsel and arbitrator in numerous international arbitrations under all major sets of arbitration rules (ICC, LCIA, SCC, ICDR, ICSID, UNCITRAL, DIAC, NAI, CEPANI and Swiss Rules) and governed by various procedural and substantive laws. Melanie has been appointed to the ISCID Panel of Arbitrators and Conciliators by the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Melanie has handled arbitrations arising out of international commercial contracts, cross-border investment, joint ventures, M&A and investment protection under international law. Melanie has been particularly active in the sectors of energy, media, information and communication technology, construction and engineering, and infrastructural and defense projects. She also regularly represents clients in annulment, enforcement and consolidation proceedings before the Netherlands state courts. Before joining Derains & Gharavi, Melanie practiced international arbitration and commercial litigation with Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer and Loyens & Loeff.

Volodymyr Yaremko
