Monday, 19 April 2010, at 8.30am till 10.30am

at Hotel Acolina
Quinta da Torre, Ludo Valley
8135 ALMANCIL

The British-Portuguese Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce our first series of Business Breakfasts in the Algarve. This will be a 60 min. presentation followed by 15 min. Q&A to allow our members ample time to clear any uncertainties they might have.

The fragility of the economy during recent times has brought about an increase in the number of companies having to release staff from their employment contracts. Knowing how to go about this within the confines of the law is complex and companies and employees alike need to inform themselves of their obligations and rights, especially in light of new labour law.

These breakfast meetings present a great opportunity to do some networking as well. Places are limited, and thus we urge you to make your reservation promptly.

We very much look forward to seeing you there.

Best regards,

Gustavo Lima
